At the Home of the Bride's Parents.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs Aaron Bucket, 3½ miles north of Argenta, in Friends Creek township, on Thursday evening, February 17, 1887, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Ida M Brucker and Edward Crawford.
The weather was anything but pleasant, with the roads almost impassable, but many were present, however, from Decatur, Emery and Argenta, coming through wind, rain, mist and darkness. At 7 o'clock the contracting parties, to the music of the grand old Mendelsohn's wedding march, prepared to the parlor, and in the presence of many brothers, sisters and friends, were pronounced "man and wife" by Rev Jeffers, of Cason, Ill., in a brief but an elegant manner, after which came the congratulations. Then came the request that all proceed to the dining room where a bountiful supply of refreshments both pleasing to the eye and taste, prepared by Mrs Aaron Brucker and a corps of able assistants waited upon the guests.

Vocal and instrumental music was furnished and enjoyed by all, while many indulged in skipping the "light fantastic." Those present were as follows: Mrs and Mr Henry Flood and family, Mrs J W Cowell, from Emery, Mr and Mrs. Claus Crosby and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Acuff and daughter, and L Crocker, from Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Brucker and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George McGuire and family, from Homer, Mr and Mrs. Lon Bricker, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Orr and family, Dr. Carr, Jr., from Argenta, recent graduate from Raab Medical College, and a host of friends of the bride and groom.
It is the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford to reside at the "old family manor" —will live with the "old folks."—The presents were numerous—too numerous to mention.

ONE OF THE GUESTS.

The Rick's Case.
This forenoon there was a "crowded house" at Justice Curtis' office where Jacob Rick was on trial for assaulting Ben Brister to commit murder, and for carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $50 and costs for carrying the pocket canons, and was placed under bonds of $500 to await the action of the June grand jury on the assault charge.
He went to jail.

This new street car project is a go. It will be incorporated and known as "The Decatur and North Park Street Railway Company," capital $25,000 in 1,000 shares to cost $25 each. All of the stock has been taken. Those at the meeting last night were M Elson, Ben Dill, Dr Hubbard, W C Dimock, Dr. Walston, E L Martin, J M Clokey, V H Park, H Pasco, John Oren, Andrew Dennis, George Brown and others. It is proposed to build the line on North Main street from the old square, North to King street, East to Water, and North to a point near the Driving Park

Judge George W Hormann, grand representative of the Knights of Pythias order and a past officer, arrived in the city this noon. He will be the principal orator to-night at the anniversary celebration to be held at Knights of Pythias hall

Mr and Mrs Samuel Diller have returned from Albany, Texas, where they have been spending the winter. Mr Diller has a ranch of 5,750 acres of land in Texas, all fenced in and his sons have in addition 3,000 acres enclosed. The ranches are all well stocked with cattle

Geo E Knight and family are stopping with Mr Hirun Johnson on West Dean-ter street. Mr Knight, formerly of Prairie Home, has just returned from a visit to his friends at Middleport, N Y. He is looking up with a view of locating in the city. He owns good farm near Prairie Home.

Senator Gritz arrived last night from Springfield. The Senate bill for the permanent location of the state fair by the board of agriculture has come from the committee and will go to a second reading soon. As now reported it provides for only one paved street to the fair grounds. The bill in the House to be considered on March 2 is very short. It provides simply for the permanent location of the state fair at —.

Particular favor to Springfield, and the collected sum of $1,000 to be paid to the state fair fund.

It's all very well to talk about building new railroads and new steam ships—but how could men, women and children travel on them without Dr Bull's Cough Spray? Think of it.

Neither a borrower nor a lender be, but

OCTOBER 27, 1886.

A "Firelight" Party.
There was a very enjoyable party of young folks at the Palace hotel parlor last night. The affair was planned by Miss Minnie Davis, and was voted a complete success by all. The early part of the evening was devoted to music, recitations and a magic lantern entertainment, after which there were social games and refreshments. The jolly folks did not say good-bye until a late hour.

Sixty-four M B THOMPSON, of Urbana, in the city to-day on route for home, is in favor of Decatur for the state fair. He doesn't think the place will be selected by act of the legislature, and believes Decatur is strong with the members of the state board notwithstanding the brag and bluster of Peoria, Springfield and Chicago.

During the year 1886 the milling firm of Shellbarger & Co received 1600 car loads of wheat at their mill, enough to make 11 miles long, and they sent out 900 car loads of flour, the entire lot forming a train 20 miles in length, ranging from Decatur to Bement. This is a practical illustration of the amount of business done by one Decatur industry.

Ella Meade.

The renowned character will appear at the open house next Thursday night and give an entertainment distinguished for its surprise novelties in single imitation, new songs, sketches, impromptu comedy and inimitable funny specialties, new and original. Miss Meade is endowed with a voice of remarkable power and is a born actress. The press records her instant praise. The cello song is alone worth the price of admission. Secure your tickets for the attraction. Prices—25, 35 and 50 cents.
